

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	1
Creating a Single Fabric	2
Statement of the Problem	3
Where Traditional Trades and Trade Schools Fit	5
Basic Conclusions	5
Capital in the 21st Century	7
Summary of the Proposed Education Program	8
Voyage of Discovery	9
Why We Have to Talk about Single Parenthood.	10
Making Public Policy Should Not Require Scientific Certainty.	13
You Can't Paint a Moving Train	14
Join the Conversation.	14
Confessions	14
CHAPTER 1
Education Level Determines Economic and Social Status	18
Earnings and Education	20
Figure 1 Educational Premiums among Men 1963 to 2008	21
Figure 2 and Figure 3
Changes in Real Wage Levels of Full-Time Workers 1963-2012	22
Figure 4 Unemployment by Level of Education 1992 to 2014 (from Calculated Risk)	23
Educational Attainment—Historical	24
Figure 5 High School Diplomas by Age Cohort	25
Figure 6 College Degrees by Birth Cohort	26
Goldin and Katz on the Education Premium	27
Recent Graduation Rates	29
College Success is Highly Correlated with Family Income	30
Why Do Kids from Low-Income Families Not Succeed in School?	31
CHAPTER 2
The Rise of Never-married Parenthood	35
Table 1 Percentage of Births to Unmarried Women By Race/Ethnicity 2011	35
Table 2 Percentage of Births to Unmarried Women By Educational Attainment 2011	36
Figure 7 Percentage of Non-Marital Births to 20-29 Year-Old Women 1970 to 2010	37
The Decline of Marriage among the Less Educated	38
Cohabitation in America	40
Unintended Pregnancies	41
Figure 8 Percentage of Pregnancies that were Intended (by Age Group at Time of Conception)	41

THE EDUCATION SOLUTION

Figure 9 Percentage of Pregnancies that were Intended
(by Marital/Cohabitation Status at Time of Conception) 41
Unintended Pregnancies 42
The Fog Zone 44
Promises I Can Keep 46
Changes in Family Composition Since 1960 48
Figure 10 Comparison of Percentages of Children Living with Mother Only, Between Mother Never Married, Mother Divorced, and Mother Divorced or Married not Living with Spouse 50
Coming Apart 51

CHAPTER 3

Consequences of Having Children Non-Maritally 54
Incomes of Single Mothers 55
Table 3 Median Income of Families 2011 56
The Costs of Raising and Educating Children 57
Figure 11 Annual Spending (2012) on a Child from Birth through Age 17 By income group (husband-and-wife families—younger child) 58
Education Outcomes 59
Mothers in Higher Income Families Spend More Time with Children 61
Educational Attainment Is Correlated with Family Income 61
Stability of Parental Arrangements Matters 64
Once You Have a Child, Why Not Get Married? 65

CHAPTER 4

What is Driving the Trend Toward Non-Marital Parenthood? 71
The Decline of Marriage 74
Why Has Marriage Declined? 75
A Good Soul Mate Is Hard to Find? 75
Economic Reasons to Have Children without Marriage? 76
The Trouble with Boys 79
Too Many Clues 81

CHAPTER 5

Changes in Family Structure Have Reduced Middle Class Earnings . . 84
Inequality, Capitalism and Technological Change 85
Figure 12 Industrial Production and Its Employment
(1972-2014) 87
Income Data 1970 to 2011 88
Stagnation of Middle Class Household Income 90
Table 5 Mean Real Household Income in Dollars
(1970 Compared with 2011) 93
Digging Further into the Household Income Data 93

C O N T E N T S

Figure 13 Real Mean Household Income Cumulative Growth . . . 94
 Other Ways of Looking at Inequality. 95
 Figure 14 Real Income Growth by Quintile 1979-2007 97
 Family Patterns also Affect Prospects for Upward Mobility 98

CHAPTER 6

The Boy Problem, The Girl problem, and the Benefits of College . . . 103
 The Boy Problem 103
 When Did the Boy Problem Start? 105
 Boys' Behavioral Issues. 105
 Two-Speed Brain Development? 108
 How Reading Is Taught. 109
 Wayward Sons 111
 Men Are Superfluous 112
 Falling Birth Rate and Marriage Rate 115
 Rising Divorce Rate and More Children Living with One Parent . . . 116
 The Shocks of Woodstock, Vietnam and Watergate. 117
 Civil Rights, Assassinations and Watergate 118
 Industrial Production 118
 Big Economic Events. 119
 Women's Labor Force Share Has Been Increasing Since WWII . . . 121
 Figure 15 Labor Participation Rates 122
 A Complex of Related Causes 123
 What Is To Be Done?. 123
 The Girl Problem and the Benefits of College 125

CHAPTER 7

Getting Kids Ready for College 132
 Developing a Nationally Funded, Locally Based Early Education Program 135
 Who, How, At What Cost?. 137
 Local Initiatives, Reporting and Management. 141

CHAPTER 8

A Better Way to Pay for College 145
 Table 6 List Price of Colleges 146
 An Introduction to Federal Student Loans. 147
 Paying for College. 153
 Characteristics of Current Programs vs. Stipend Program 156
 Can America Afford It? 159
 Slow Down, Says Prof. Cherlin 160
 Where Does Trade School Fit In? 162
 Two-Year Colleges. 164

THE EDUCATION SOLUTION

CHAPTER 9

Paying for Early Education and College is a Good National Investment 171

- The Proposed Investment in College Educations 171
- Table 7 Annual Costs of $10,000 Stipend 173
- How the Proposed Governmental Expenditures Compare with Current Governmental Education Expenditures 174
- Projections You Can Audit Show We Can Afford This 174
- Figure 16 Flow Chart of the Criminal Justice System 176
- Figure 17 Net Program Costs and Benefits over 30 Years 180
- Figure 18 Annual Net Benefits over 30 Years 180
- Longer Life, Non-Smoking and Lower Obesity 181
- A Positive Feedback Loop 182

CHAPTER 10

Can the Program Really Deliver What It Promises? 189

- Does a College Education Still Pay? 190
- Figure 19 Rising Earnings of College Graduates (Millenials Outpace Prior Generations). 191
- Figure 20 (Per David Autor) Present Discounted Value of College Relative to High School 192
- What Does a College Education Provide that Pays Off? 193
- Does Education Really Change People? 197
- Problems of Implementation. 198
- Will the Proposed Programs Be Enough Help for At-Risk Kids to Succeed? 200
- IQ as a Barrier—Too Dumb for College? 202
- Subsidies Cause Prices to Rise 205
- Will There Be Jobs for All Those Graduates? 209
- Will the Education Premium Persist into the Future? 212
- Beaudry, Green and Sand 213
- Figure 21 Occupational Employment Rate and Supply Index . . 214
- Figure 22 Task Prices 1990-2010 215
- Slow Growth per Robert J. Gordon 216
- If Future Safety Net Needs Would Grow without Better Education 217
- A Different Kind of Paradigm Shift 218
- Is Education Really a Panacea? 219
- Unproven 220
- Straight Talk About Early Childhood Education. 222
- Why Both Early Education and College? 224
- Why Not K through 12? 225
- But Does It Have To Cost So Much? 226
- Can Government Succeed at such a Large Enterprise? 228

C O N T E N T S

Why Do You Want to Rob People of their Culture?	229
Republicans Will Never Vote for It	229
CHAPTER 11
Are There Good Alternatives?	237
A National Campaign to Reduce Non-Marital Pregnancy	238
Religion as a Force for Marriage	240
Religion as a Force for Education	241
Is the Rising Rate of Non-Marital Births a Cause or a Symptom? .	241
Ways to Support Parents and Children	242
Better Jobs and Working Conditions	242
Subsidies for Parents and Children	245
Types of Subsidies	247
Population Replacement	248
Figure 23 Elderly Dependency Ratio 1980 to 2050, Projected. . .	249
Competition Between Two Kinds of Remedies for Inequality . . .	250
Join the Conversation	252
APPENDIX F
Local Initiatives for Early Childhood Education	256
The Essentials of the Program	256
Local Control	257
Requirements for Federal Funding	257
Defining Program Communities	259
How the Program Will Work, Program Sponsor Responsibility,
Donor Origination and Oversight	260
Who Will Be Program Sponsors?	262
Poorly Performing Program Sponsors or Defaulting Donors	263
Self-Correcting Mechanisms	263
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	264